

NeuroBridges

2018

*A Mediterranean, Middle Eastern
School in Computational Neuroscience*

October 2-12

Cluny, France

Students will attend lectures delivered by a group of leading neuroscientists, experimentalists as well as theoreticians, which will address the fundamental questions of contemporary neuroscience. In addition, the students will work in groups on small research projects.

The keynote speaker is Yves Frégnac (CNRS, France).

Faculty:

Carl van Vreeswijk (CNRS, France)

Yoram Burak (Hebrew University, Israel)

Gianluigi Mongillo (CNRS, France)

Najib Majaj (NYU, USA)

Valerie Ego-Stengel (CNRS, France)

Farzan Nadim (NJIT, USA)

Contact Us: neurobridges2018@gmail.com

<http://decision-making-lab.com/NeuroBridges/neurobridges2018.html>

Co-organized by: Ahmed El Hady (Princeton Neuroscience Institute, USA), Yonatan Loewenstein (Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel)
and David Hansel (CNRS, France).

